When working in a restaurant kitchen, the first thing to consider is the right clothing. You are required to wear chef pants and a chef coat.

In Greek: panteloni and sakaki mageira.

You probably guessed it already: Mageiras is the Greek word for chef. If the chef is female it is Mageirissa.

And mageirevw means to cook.

You also need to wear safety shoes - papoutsia asfaleias and an apron - podia.

It is also required to wear a head covering of some kind, it could be a hat, a baseball cap or a bandana. That's up to you.

Before you begin, you must follow the hygiene measures and wash your hands thoroughly. In Greek it is called: Plenw ta xeria.

And after washing you sanitize your hands:
Apolimanw ta xeria.

Your point of contact in the kitchen is the kitchen manager:

They will tell you what tasks you need to accomplish and will also give you instructions on how to use the work equipment - Eksoplismos like knives, pots and sieves and the machinery - Ergaleia like the dish washer or burner.

A task you will probably have to do in a Greek kitchen is preparing vegetables. Laxanika means vegetables in Greek.

To wash the vegetables is Plenw laxanika.

Asfaleia

For all activities in the kitchen there are 3 important guidelines.

Be careful with your equipment.

For example leave your knives on the side of the chopping block with the blade facing the block.

Kathariotita kai Taktopioisi

Number two is hygiene and tidiness: Kathariotita kai taktopioisi. Clean your station regularly and keep your equipment in order.

Oxi viasini

The third guideline is don't rush: Oxi viasini. Don't rush and be mindful of your co-workers.

Siggnomi, exo mia erotisi.

There is one more guideline, that you should keep in mind always: Whenever you are unsure about anything, ask your supervisor! In Greek you can say: Siggnomi, ex mia erotisi. Which means: Excuse me, I have a question.
